What is your estimated total business income for your current financial year (or, if you are a start-up business, your forthcoming financial year)?

£60,000.00

"An excellent service and it does not take a few minutes compared to other insurance companies. Not only are the insurance costs very low, but the level of customer service is brilliant."

"The claims advisor was extremely helpful. She took all my details and approved my claim straight away, and the funds were in my account within a matter of hours... I couldn't recommend them enough."

Important statements

Please review these important statements, answer accurately and then click continue to payment.

These statements relate to you - the proposer - plus any principal, director or partner connected with the business to be insured.

In a personal capacity or in connection with any existing or previous business, the proposer or any principal, director or partner:

- Has never had insurance refused or declined.
- Has never had any cover cancelled, avoided or made subject to special terms.
- Has never been convicted of a criminal offence, apart from motoring offences and spent convictions (as defined under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act).
- Has never been charged but not yet convicted of a criminal offence, other than a motoring offence.
- Has never been prosecuted, or served a prohibition order under health and safety legislation or environmental protection legislation within the last 5 years.
- Has not been subject to a county court or high court judgement in the last 5 years.
- Has not been declared bankrupt in the last 5 years.

- Has never been disqualified from a directorship of any company.
- Has never been the subject of a recovery action by HM Revenue & Customs or its predecessors.

In addition:

- You have not had more than three claims in the last three years or in the last period of insurance. Where you have had up to three claims, the total value of these claims or an individual claim does not exceed £25,000 (paid and outstanding).
- You or any of the principals or employees of the business to be insured are not aware of any existing situation which may result in a claim to this policy. Other than any claims or situations already advised to AXA.

Want to talk?

Only answer YES if you have an Employer Reference Number (ERN) within 75 days of the start date of your employees in any systems (including computer systems, software and hardware) which control or assist in the operation of machinery or in the engineering of goods or materials. It will have been given to your business by HMRC.

- The business to be insured is based in the UK (England, Scotland and Wales).

Managing your policy online

AXA offers a fully online service and will provide a secure AXA Account online where all policy documents and customer information will be stored. All policies purchased using the same email address will be saved in the same AXA Account.

You will be able to print your documents and make changes to your business insurance policy in your AXA Account online. If you prefer us to post a document to you or adjust any details (including cancelling your policy for you) we can do so, but we reserve the right to charge an administration fee of up to £35 for any document we post or any change or correction we make on your behalf.

Please note:

We may check the details you supplied against insurance industry databases, which will be updated with relevant information. We may undertake searches about you with credit reference agencies who will supply us with information, including from the electoral register. These agencies may record details of the search whether or not this application proceeds.

If you've chosen to pay by instalments, you agree that you can afford the monthly repayments.

You agree that you understand and accept all the statements above. You agree to the terms and conditions outlined in the policy summary and also that you have had the opportunity to read the full policy wording.
